2 Corinthians 9:15 “Thanks be unto God for His unspeakable gift.” (see also 2 Corinthians 5:21)

The gift of Jesus Christ, the sacrificial Lamb of God for our sins, how could we ever properly express gratitude for Him.

Our hearts were warmly blessed as in September we witnessed the ministries of many of our missionaries in Ghana and Liberia. How wonderful that God’s “unspeakable gift” is for folk in all the world. In nearly every service, the Lord was pleased to save souls. In Ghana after 10 years the Lord opened a “great door” to the military. It is our prayer that the door will remain open, that a harvest of souls will accept God’s “unspeakable gift.”

A wonderful blessing is the privilege to conduct the “Living Truth” and the “Message of Truth” radio ministries. To be honored to present God’s “unspeakable gift” to the world via radio and the web. God’s open door via the air waves.

What a joy to share WOTM’s various ministries to college students and administrators, an opportunity for service to the Lord to “send forth labourers into His harvest.” Aletha and I have been representing WOTM in this way mid-October to mid-November. There have also been opportunities to visit churches as well.

Over Christmas, we will be in Puerto Rico. We are thankful for those who have given towards this. This will be the first time we will spend Christmas there. Our son, Bill and his family, have been missionaries there since the mid 90’s.

We rejoice that Aletha has good use of her right arm and hand. Having been released from the doctor and therapist care. She continues to do therapy on her own.

We do ask prayer as we plan ahead for 2007. Both personally and ministry wise. We would be delighted to do some pulpit supply, missions conferences, and revivals as the Lord would lead. It is our desire to make known “God’s Unspeakable Gift” to as many as possible.

In February or early March, we have been asked to come to India. At present time there are no funds for this trip. It is a needed trip. Please pray with us regarding this ministry trip. The end of March early April will be a ministry trip to the mid-west.

Thank you for being a part of our ministry. May you have a blessed Thanksgiving, Christmas and New Year.

In Christ.
